CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All Lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the Seller and (b) to the right of the Seller either to bid personally or else by any one person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. Messrs. Sotheby & Co. act as agents; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any fault or defect in it, and make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.
To prevent confusion no purchases can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

The Property of Major C. S. Goldingham.

174 A CHARLES II WALNUT DAYBED, with cane seat; the back supported by spiral columns carved with formal foliage at the tops and bases, and with supporting panels, pierced and finely carved with acanthus scrolls of a typical design, the centre with cane panel; the seat carved with foliage scrolls in low relief, supported on six baluster legs, with deep stretchers, carved and pierced in a similar manner to the back, 5 ft. 8 in. long

175 AN IMPORTANT EARLY CHIPPENDALE MAHOGANY CABINET, c. 1735, of architectural elevation, showing the influence of William Kent, comprising a centre piece with two shouldered wings, the upper part containing shelves enclosed by three mirror-panelled doors, surmounted by a broken pediment, carved with borders of egg and tongue ornament and foliage; the shoulders formed as large scrolls, carved with husks and scrolling flowers. The glass to the doors is framed in from the front; the centre panel of the upper door is arched and supported by two columns carved at their capitals with female heads from which depend swags of different flowers in high relief; the lower part consists of a bureau with sloping, fall-down front, flanked by two cupboards, the doors finely carved with swags and festoons of bay leaves, pendant from rococo rosettes and cartouches. Below these are cupboards with panelled fronts, the mouldings carved with the ribbon and rosette pattern, and with husked corners below a frieze of arcading. The base with a border of gadroon ornament, 7 ft. 10 in. high, 4 ft. 1 in. wide

** Bookcases of this type are exceedingly rare. A specimen very similar to the one now offered is illustrated in R. W. Symonds' "The present State of Old English Furniture," Fig. 66. Another example of this type, but with different detail, is illustrated by Percy MacQuoid in "A History of English Furniture. The Age of Mahogany," Fig. 98. In Francis Lenygon's "Furniture in England, 1660-1760," there is illustrated a bookcase designed by William Kent, which in general outline bears certain similarities.
